

Reference Code MS 105

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Richmond Motor Hotel Menu

Date: ca.1971

Extent: 1 folder

Scope and Content: 1 menu showing daily fare plus special menu for March 4, 1971

Name of Creator: Richmond Motor Hotel

Administrative/Biographical History: Donor unknown

The Richmond Motor Hotel, in the 700 block of Broad Street, is now low-income housing, the Richmond Summit. The 100-year-old building started as a luxury hotel, the Hotel Richmond in 1923, later being converted to a $1,250,000 convention center, the Augusta Town House in 1963. It reopened as the Richmond Motor Hotel in 1971

Conditions governing access: no restrictions

Related resources:

Rhodes, Don. Ramblin' Rhodes. "Former Hotel Richmond Marks 100th Anniversary." Augusta Good News May 8, 2023 Accessed August 8, 2023 <https://augustagoodnews.com/ramblins-roads-former-hotel-richmond-marks-100th-anniversary-in-may/>