

Reference Code MS 114 (originally part of MS 046)

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Printing of Isaac Asimov's Breakthroughs in Science

Date: ca. 1960

Extent: 1 box

Scope and Content: Contains what is believed to be an annotated printing of Breakthroughs in Science when the book went to serialization.

Name of Creator: Cochran, Jean

Administrative/Biographical History: Material was obtained by Jean Cochran for the Augusta Public Library ca. 1962 as attested by the postmark on the original mailing envelope

Isaac Asimov (ca. January 2, 1920- April 6, 1992) is acknowledged as one of the foremost science-fiction writers of all time. Less well known are his non-fiction publications in which he explained science topics in accessible language for the average reader. Breakthroughs in Science was intended for a juvenile audience.

Conditions governing access: restricted. Published copies available through PINES

Related resources: