

Reference Code: MS 140

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Jessye Norman School of the Arts Benefit Concert

Date: October 11, 2015

Extent: 1 folder

Scope and Content: Program documents the occasion of the benefit concert for the Jessye Norman School of the Arts

Name of Creator: Jessye Norman School of the Arts

Administrative/Biographical History: Donor unknown.

Documents a one-time benefit performance by Augusta natives, internationally renowned artists Jessye Norman, Russell Joel Brown, Karen Brown, and Wycliffe Gordon as well as the participation of Karen Gordon founder of Garden City Jazz. Garden City Jazz is an Augusta organization which promotes jazz performance and education.

The Jessye Norman School of the Arts on 739 Green St. Augusta, Georgia, founded in 2003, strives “to develop students to become creative, visionary, responsible citizens through the transformative power of the arts.”

Conditions governing access: no restrictions

Related resources:

The Jessye Norman School of the Arts <https://thejnsa.org/>