

Reference Code: MS 68

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Paine College Programs

Date: 1967, 1969, 2010

Extent: 1 folder

Scope and Content: The three items document artistic programs produced or hosted by Paine College.

Name of Creator: Paine College

Administrative/Biographical History: donor unknown

Founded in 1882, Paine College, a Historic Black College and University (HBCU) was established to educate teachers and ministers in keeping with the mission of the Paine Institute founded in 1869. For a historical sketch of Paine College consult. <https://www.paine.edu/web/about/history>

Conditions governing access: no restrictions

Related resources:

Clary, George E. Paine College, Augusta Georgia: An Account Of Its Beginnings (1882-1903). Brunswick, Georgia: Printed for the Author by Lemmond Letter Shop 1975

- Paine College Fine Arts Festival Presents the Augusta Symphony Orchestra March 19, 1967
- Paine College Conference on the Communicative Arts: The Language and Literature of the Afro-American People February 23-25, 1969
- Paine College Museum Initiative: Andy Warhol's Hand-colored Flowers October 4-9, 2010