

Reference Code MS 73

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Fort Gordon Georgia Welcome Manual

Date: ca. 1961

Extent: 1 folder

Scope and Content: Welcome manual contains the commander's welcome letter as well as short biographies on associated training units as well as a brief map

Name of Creator: United States Army

Administrative/Biographical History: Transferred from the Augusta-Richmond County Library Information desk.

Initially founded as Camp Gordon in 1941, the army base has had a variety of missions over the years. In October 2023 the command will be renamed Fort Eisenhower

Conditions governing access: no restrictions

Related resources: