

Reference Code MS 86

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Various works by Charles C. Jones Jr.

Date: un, 1875. 1878

Extent: 1 folder

Scope and Content: 4 booklets. Speech, oration, and publication by Charles C. Jones Jr.

Name of Creator: Jones, Charles C., Jr. (Charles Colcock), 1831-1893

Administrative/Biographical History: Donor unknown

Charles C. Jones Jr (1831-1893). is considered the foremost Georgia historian of the nineteenth century. He spent his final year at Montrose (The Alan Fuqua Center) in Augusta, Georgia.

Conditions governing access: No restrictions

- "Honorable R.M.I. Hunter: Post Bellem Mortality Among Confederates" – Confederate Survivors' Association 1887
- "Sepulture of Major General Nathanael Greene and of Brigadier General Count Casimir Pulaski"- undated (pages uncut)
- Ceremonies In Augusta Georgia, Laying The Corner Stone of the Confederate Monument: with Oration by General Clement A, Evans April 26, 1875 and the Unveiling and Dedication Of the Monument with Oration by Colonel Charles C. Jones Jr. October 31, 1878."

Related resources:

MS 78 Address Delivered Before The Georgia Bar Association At Its Eighth Annual Meeting Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Bragg, William. "Charles C. Jones Jr." New Georgia Encyclopedia, last modified Sep 3, 2014. <https://www.georgiaencyclopedia.org/articles/history-archaeology/charles-c-jones-jr-1831-1893/>