

Reference Code: MS 205

Repository: Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System, 823 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Title: Jeannette Maxwell Vallotton poetry

Date: December 25, 1987

Extent: 1 booklet

Scope and Content: The bound booklet titled Glimpses of My Heart contains approximately 50 poems. These cover observations of Mrs. Vallotton's family members and her own experiences

Name of Creator: Jeannette Maxwell Vallotton

Administrative/Biographical History: Material was transferred to the Georgia Room, Georgia Room, Augusta-Richmond County Public Library System on September 19, 2024 by the Spartanburg County Public Libraries, South Carolina.

Jeannette Maxwell Vallotton (d. May 8, 2004) was a member of the Founder's Club of the Medical College of Georgia, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Junior League and a lifelong member of Saint John United Methodist Church. At one time, she also ran a business, the Maxwell Travel Agency. The frontispiece of the self-published booklet is dedicated to the grandparents of Lawton and Clay Maxwell Jordan and the author has signed the copy.

Conditions governing access: No restrictions

Related resources:

.