Debutante Dresses Debut at the Library

By Kashaela Barber

From March 10th to June 30th the Georgia Heritage Room will host the Rosa T. Beard Debutante Club Exhibit. So many historical pieces will be on display, including Rosa T. Beard's granddaughter's dress, Noel Corbin's favorite in the room. When asked what installing an exhibit in the Georgia Heritage Room meant to her, the PhD student of UGA exclaimed it was exciting.

"Ah man, it feels like I'm plugging in pieces of Augusta culture into a room so fitting to be called the Georgia [Heritage] Room," Noel Corbin, Contract Curator for the Lucy C. Laney Museum said.

On June 21st, the ARCPLS and the museum will collaborate once more for a day of exploration and celebration before the exhibition comes to a close. Stop by to explore the world of debutante and see history in fabric form, Monday through Friday 9am- 5pm at 823 Telfair Street. Tina Monaco, a Georgia Heritage Room historian will gladly meet you there.

"...Of course the dresses are the draw, but the Rosa T. Beard Debutante Club is so much more. For sixty years, 1000s of young women have been guided by the Christian principles of founder Rosa T. Beard..."

The Georgia Room is privileged to partner with the Lucy Craft Laney [Museum] of Black History and The Rosa T. Beard Debutante Club in co-hosting this inspiring exhibit."

5 Years of Service: A Celebration

By Kashaela Barber

Wednesday, March 19, 2025, Augusta, Ga - Young Adult Librarian, Jor'danan "Jordi" Curtis, anxiously walked to the center of the teen area to be awarded with a certificate and words of thanks for her 5 years of service with the Augusta Richmond County Public Library System (ARCPLS). Director Emanuel Mitchell and Assistant Director Liz Mason of the ARCPLS were with smiles and admiration as they posed for pictures with Curtis.

"Her commitment and enthusiasm...She puts herself in everything she does; whole heartedly. Even after 5 years she has the same passion. It's not just [with] the teens, it's to all our patrons," Mason said.

Mason isn't the only person encouraged by the completion of 5 years. Jordi told of how growing up in the area she had dreams of being in the medical field, but the library has stolen her heart.

"I never saw myself as a librarian. It's great to come from the community and give back."

Congratulations on your 5 years of service and thank you for your contributions Jordi!
